

Le Ann Finger, PGA, LPGA

Le Ann Finger is the Director of Golf Operations for the Arizona Golf Association (AGA) where she manages the tournament operations for more than 35 association golf tournaments and championships as well as 18 USGA Qualifiers for nearly 95,000 amateur golfers in the State of Arizona. Key initiatives Le Ann has managed includes all aspects of contract negotiation, execution and tournament preparation and operations. With more than 25 years of experience in the golf industry, Le Ann has an extensive background in golf administration, golf operations as well serving as a liaison with allied golf associations for many years.

Le Ann is a PGA Master Professional in Player Development in addition to being one of only 210 women nationwide who are both a PGA of America and an LPGA Class A Professional. In 2019, Le Ann earned the PGA Player Development Award from the Southwest PGA Section for extraordinary contributions and achievements in the area of player development. She currently serves on the Southwest PGA Section Board of Directors where she is the Diversity and Inclusion Committee Co-Chair and the Junior Golf Committee Co-Chair. Le Ann is immediate Past President of Women in the Golf Industry and has previously served on The PGA of America National Membership Committee, The First Tee National Growing Girls Golf committee and the LPGA National Hall of Fame committee.

Le Ann's golf industry experience includes six years as a Division III golf coach at her alma mater where she led the St. Olaf women's golf team for seven seasons while coaching the men's golf team for four seasons. In addition to coaching at St. Olaf College, she worked for two years as their Sports Information Director and one year in Media Relations and Marketing. Le Ann began her golf career as an Assistant Golf Professional at the Northfield Golf Club in Northfield, Minnesota.

Le Ann was born and raised in West Des Moines, Iowa and is a graduate of St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications and Education and was a four-year letter winner and captain of the women's golf team. In 2019, Le Ann was the first female inducted into the Valley High School Hall of Honor in West Des Moines.

Le Ann and her husband, David have two adult daughters, Kelsey Finger and Brooke Carey plus son-in-law Kurtis Carey who are all avid golfers.